

Minnesota – Dakotas District of Key Club International Club Officers for Key Club Year _____

The Standard Form of Club Bylaws state that new officers should be elected during a meeting held in February and that those officers should take office in April. This allows the new officer time to be trained by the outgoing officers.

The District uses the contact information to provide the club with timely information. The District cannot disclose club officer and member information to third parties.

Please continue and submit this form at registration during DCON or mail to
